Definitions

Full-time employees (clause 10)

Employees who work a regular or predictable roster of 38 hours per week are full-time.

Part-time employees (clause 11)

Employees who work a regular or predictable roster and have reasonable expectation of continuation of employment are part-time. The employer and the employee, at the time of engagement, will agree on a roster of regular hours. Part time employees must be rostered for a minimum of three hours on any day. The employee is to be given a written copy of the roster.

Casual rates (clause 12)

A casual employee is engaged for a short term period with no guarantee of continued employment beyond the period of engagement. Casual employees are paid the ordinary rate plus a loading of 25% and are excluded from certain award provisions. This loading is in lieu of entitlements to leave and other matters from which casuals are excluded by the terms of this award and the National Employment Standards.

Allowances

Vehicle allowance (clause 19.4)

Employees who are approved to use their motor vehicle in the course of their employment are paid at a rate of 78 cents per kilometre (Maximum 400 km per week).

Clothing (clause 19.2)

Where an employee is required to wear and launder a uniform any cost of the uniform must be reimbursed and the employee paid a weekly laundry allowance of $3.55 per week for full-time employees or $0.71 per shift for casual and part-time staff.

Meal allowance (clause 19.3)

Employees who are required to work for more than 1.5 hours of overtime without being given 24 hours' notice after the employee's ordinary time of ending work will be either provided with a meal or paid a meal allowance of $15.45.

Superannuation (clause 24)

All employees who are paid more than $450 in a month are entitled to an employer contribution of 9.5% to a complying Superannuation Fund.

Leave

Annual (clause 29)

Each full-time or part-time employee is entitled to four weeks annual leave on ordinary pay. If a public holiday occurs on a day that an employee is normally rostered to work, within an employee's leave period, the leave will be extended by an additional day in respect of each public holiday.

An employee who terminates employment within a year of employment shall receive pro-rata annual leave calculated up to the date of termination.

Each employee taking annual leave will be paid a loading of 17.5% calculated on the ordinary rate of pay

Personal/carers (clause 30)

Employees are entitled to 10 days personal/carer's leave per year (pro-rata for part-time employees). Unused personal leave is fully cumulative. Personal/carer's leave is accrued progressively during the year.

Term break arrangements

Employees employed under this award are employed for the whole year and will be paid (and be required to work) through term breaks. Annual leave is usually taken over the Christmas period. The Clerks Private Sector Award does not have a provision for term time only employees.

Overtime (clause 27)

Employees who are required to work in excess of their normal weekly rostered hours or after 7:00 pm (Monday to Friday) are paid at time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter. Overtime is calculated on a daily basis. The minimum period of any overtime payment is one half hour per week.

Work performed on a Saturday is paid at the rate of time and quarter and work done on a Sunday is paid at the rate of double time with a minimum of four hours.
