

Down Syndrome
Victoria

Inclusion in Practice: an innovative education conference

Monday 16th March 2020
8.30am – 3.30pm
Mantra Bell City Ballroom
215 Bell Street, Preston

Free parking available at the venue

Attendance at this conference can contribute to your VIT professional development

Join us for this essential professional development conference and learn practical ways to create the foundations for genuine inclusion at your primary or secondary school.

Topics include:

- Making practical and reasonable adjustments for meaningful inclusion
- Positive Behaviour Support
- Social stories
- Successful teacher and education support staff collaboration
- AND MORE!

"An excellent and informative day that should be a compulsory part of both pre-service teacher training and ongoing teacher professional development."

ATTENDEE 2019

Hear from

KEYNOTE SPEAKER TERESA IACONO

Professor of Rural and Regional Allied Health, and an Executive member of the Living with Disability Research Centre at La Trobe University, Australia

Teresa will discuss her research around meaningful inclusion of students with disability in school education, including designing reasonable adjustments for school inclusion.

KATE BARAKIS

Actor and aspiring childcare educator

Kate will share her experiences of education and inspire educators to reimagine what is possible for all students. Kate also has Down syndrome.

REGISTRATION FEES

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION

$160 – member rate $195 – non-member rate

REGISTRATION FROM

WEDNESDAY 1st JANUARY 2020

(closing Friday 28th February 2020)

$195 – member rate $235 – non member rate

REGISTER AT

inclusioninpractice.eventbrite.com.au

FOR MORE INFORMATION

e: education@dsav.asn.au

p: 1300 658 873