

Kinder teachers help our kids dream big

The Victorian Government is introducing universal funded Three-Year-Old Kindergarten. This reform will create more than 6,000 new teaching jobs across the state.

It's a flexible career. We need people who care to inspire children and help them learn through play.

If you're looking for a career change, enrol now to study.

There's financial support to study at university and Free TAFE courses available.

For more information, visit: vic.gov.au/kinder